INNOVATIVE QUALITY PRODUCTS & SYSTEMS INC. ANNOUNCES 25 YEARS IN BUSINESS

Pittsburgh, PA – September 28, 2020 – Innovative Quality Products & Systems, Inc. is a Quality consulting and training organization that is celebrating their 25th year in business. IQPS helps businesses and individuals implement or improve their business management systems in the manufacturing and software development industries.

Founded in 1996, IQPS started at the forefront of online training in 2003 with the ASQ Certified Software Quality Engineering Prep Course, which was something that not even ASQ Headquarters offered. The extremely popular Internal Audit Training Course followed in 2005 with the registration of over 500 students from all around the world.

Now, IQPS offers online quality training courses including CSQE, CQA, Internal Auditor Manufacturing Based, IT Internal Auditor Software Development, and ISO 9001:2015 Training.

“I am humbled to celebrate IQPS’s 25 Year Business Anniversary,” states Robin Dudash, Owner and President of IQPS. “I look forward to continuing to offer both online and onsite quality training courses as well as serving our clients’ internal quality audit needs.”

IQPS provides Quality consulting services for auditing, productivity support services, and practical approaches to implementing ISO 9001, IATF-16949 and ISO 14001 for effective environmental management system and software quality engineering courses. IQPS has local, national, and international clients in the software quality, industrial manufacturing, non-profit, and design industries.

Robin Dudash, the Owner and President of Innovative Quality Products & Systems, Inc., has been a senior ASQ member since 1994, and ASQ Education Chair for 18 years. She holds the certifications of CMQ/OE, CSQE, CRE, CQE, CQA, CCT, Exemplar-LA, IRCA-LA, MBA and is one of the most qualified quality professionals in the world. IQPS specializes in consulting for ISO 9001, ISO 45001, ISO 14001, ISO 27001, ISO 20000 and the sector-specific TS/IATF-16949 development. IQPS also offers online and onsite courses for quality certification and internal quality auditing services for manufacturing and software development companies.
